Supporting 5 local families
steadily with monthly micro-grants

Did you know that there are families in our local Muslim communities who struggle with poverty?

WHO ARE THE ONES WE HELP?

Single mothers & elderly

Those who can't pay rent and food

Those who lost their job or don't make enough

Common scenarios:

Single mom taking care of children and/or elderly.

Family about to get evicted from their home.

Breadwinner lost his job and tens of thousands in debt.

Single mom's job hours cut, minimum wage.

Refugee not eligible for stimulus payments.

Elderly lost all wealth and no family to help support.

Youth has to pay full tuition but is not eligible for stimulus payments or childcare payments. Has job to cover fees. And the family is eligible for zakat.

Donations go to local families who:

- ✓ Are eligible to receive zakat
- ✓ Live in Greater Danbury, Connecticut
- ✓ Struggle to pay for groceries
- ✓ Struggle to pay their rent, mortgage and/or utility bills
- ✓ Have run out of unemployment insurance and can't find a job right now
- ✓ Are not making enough to make ends meet
- ✓ Are in thousands of dollars in debt and need a way out
